

TRANSITION-TO-TEACHING REPORT

DePauw University (Master of Arts in Teaching Program)

Program	Admissions Requirements	Minimum Program Completion Period	Minimum Program Cost	How Offered	Field Experiences
Elementary Education (Master of Arts in Teaching)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Undergraduate major in an area of the liberal arts/sciences, with a min. GPA of 2.5/4.0</li> <li>• Praxis I, GRE, application portfolio (application form, personal statement, reflective essay, clean criminal history, resume, 3 references, and transcripts)</li> <li>• Course equiv. to Foundations of Education; Diverse Learners, and Developmental Learning Theories</li> </ul>	2 semesters	Tuition and Fees for the Master of Arts in Teaching program will be $17,200 for the year 2009-10. A small amount of need-based financial aid (in the form of grants-in-aid) will be available from DePauw. Enrolled students may also qualify for federal grants, loans and work study.	Cohort Program: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Candidates will begin course/field work in August, at the beginning of the public school AY, and will continue through mid-May.</li> <li>• Candidates will be in the field all day, M-F, during regular school hours, and will attend classes on DPU's campus M-Th evenings.</li> </ul>	Immersion Program: Candidates will spend approximately 1120 hours in the field (560 hours in an EC setting, &amp; 560 hours in an MC setting)

TRANSITION-TO-TEACHING REPORT

DePauw University (Master of Arts in Teaching Program)

*Secondary Education (Master of Arts in Teaching) English, Foreign Language (French, German, Latin, &amp; Spanish), Health, Mathematics, Physical Education Sciences, Social Studies, &amp; Theater Arts	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Undergraduate major in a licensable area of the liberal arts/sciences, with a min. GPA of 2.5/4.0</li> <li>• Praxis I, Praxis II Content Area Test, GRE, application portfolio (application form, personal statement, reflective essay, clean criminal history, resume, 3 references, and transcripts)</li> <li>• Course equiv. to Foundations of Education; Diverse Learners, and Developmental Learning Theories</li> </ul>	2 semesters	Tuition and Fees for the Master of Arts in Teaching program will be $17,200 for the year 2009-10. A small amount of need-based financial aid (in the form of grants-in-aid) will be available from DePauw. Enrolled students may also qualify for federal grants, loans and work study.	Cohort Program: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Candidates will begin course/field work in August, at the beginning of the public school AY, and will continue through mid-May.</li> <li>• Candidates will be in the field all day, M-F, during regular school hours, and will attend classes on DPU's campus M-Th evenings.</li> </ul>	Immersion Program: Candidates will spend approximately 1120 hours in the field (560 hours in an EA setting, &amp; 560 hours in an AYA setting)
---	---	-------------	---	---	--

*Please note: While both the Elementary and Secondary MAT programs were approved by the IDOE-OELD in 2007, DePauw currently offers a post-baccalaureate licensure program for elementary education only. In other words, until further notice, there is no secondary post-baccalaureate licensure program at DePauw.